TSOGO SUN HOTELS LIMITED

Registration number 2002/006356/06

APPLICATION OF KING IV

The contents of this report relates to Tsogo Sun Hotels Limited (Tsogo Sun Hotels or the company) and its subsidiaries (the group), including Hospitality Property Fund Limited, which has adopted TGO's governance framework. Tsogo Sun Hotels has mindfully interpreted and applied King IV in a manner that is appropriate for the organisation and the tourism sector in which it operates. To this end, the board has adopted an appropriate governance framework for the group. The board oversees the implementation of the governance framework, which it believes has resulted in the group being a good corporate citizen and achieving an honest and ethical culture, good performance, effective control within the organisation and legitimacy with stakeholders.

Tsogo Sun Hotels' application of King IV is illustrated below (and should be read with the Governance report contained in the 2021 integrated annual report):

KING IV PRINCIPLE	PRACTICE
Principle 1 The governing body should lead ethically and effectively	The board of directors has instilled a strong ethical culture, which flows through to executive management. The executive management team has a “hands-on” management approach and ensures that the company’s ethical principles and business practices are implemented by staff. The group associates itself with business partners and service providers with similar ethical values. Board members are aware of their fiduciary duty in terms of the Companies Act, 2008 to act in good faith and in the best interests of the company, at all times. The chairperson of the board is responsible for the effective operation of the board and ensures that the behaviour of board members is in accordance with Tsogo Sun Hotels’ code of conduct and its ethics policy. The executive directors undergo annual internal evaluations of their performance, which are linked, under normalised circumstances to their short term incentives. The board and committees conducted self-evaluations during 2021, the outcomes of which reflected that the board and committees performed optimally and fulfilled their statutory duties and their duties in accordance with their charter and terms of references, respectively.
Principle 2 The governing body should govern the ethics of the organisation in a way that supports the establishment of an ethical culture	Refer to principle 1 above. Directors and staff are required to adhere to the group’s ethics policy and code of conduct, which is reviewed annually. Tsogo Sun Hotels does not tolerate any form of bribery or corruption. The social and ethics committee has an increased responsibility for the monitoring of good corporate citizenship and the management of ethics and for ensuring that anti-corruption and anti-fraud principles are adhered to. The implementation and monitoring of the ethics policy and the code of conduct is the responsibility of the executive management team. The key aspects of the ethics policy are how business is conducted, the group’s societal contribution and handling of people, the need for employees to speak out about wrongdoings, conflicts of interest, the legitimate interests of the business, application of law, policies and procedures, corporate governance matters and individual accountability. Group policies provide guidance on matters such as conflicts of interests, acceptance and giving of donations and gifts, compliance with laws and the dissemination of confidential information. It explains the nature of conflicts of interests and requires for any real or perceived conflict of interest, to be disclosed as soon as possible. General declarations of interests are made by board members annually and updated throughout the year. Procedures, which include, but are not limited to an independently managed whistle-blower line, may be utilised to bring any unethical business practices to the attention of the board and its committees. Investigations are carried out and findings reported, and disciplinary, civil or criminal action is taken as and when appropriate. All senior employees are required to sign an annual declaration confirming no conflicts of interest and compliance with laws and regulations.

Principle 3 The governing body should ensure that the organisation is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizen	The board oversees the implementation of the governance framework, which it believes has resulted in the group being a good corporate citizen and achieving an honest and ethical culture, good performance, effective control within the organisation and legitimacy with stakeholders. The social and ethics committee is a statutory committee of the board. The committee oversees and reports on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Progress in the alignment of the group’s practices to the requirements of the revised B-BBEE codes • Regulatory compliance • Anti-bribery and anti-corruption • Responsible tourism • Preferential procurement, socio-economic development and enterprise and supplier development • Environmental management and certification • Customer satisfaction, loyalty, health and safety and consumer protection • Job creation, employee health and safety, employee development, management diversity, employment equity and employee engagement The company is employment equity compliant, remunerates its staff fairly and has a good health and safety record. Employees are developed within the group and receive regular training on relevant matters as required.
Principle 4 The governing body should appreciate that the organisation’s core purpose, its risks and opportunities, strategy, business model, performance and sustainable development are all inseparable elements of the value creation process	The board is accountable to its stakeholders for the group’s performance and activities. In order to achieve its responsibility for the sustainable success and overall control of the group, the board has approved the group’s governance framework, policies and its strategy, the implementation of which has been delegated to executive management and is monitored by the board, through detailed quarterly reporting to the board and its committees. The board, in line with the board charter: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reviews the group’s strategy and business model regularly to ensure that it meets the group’s core purpose; • monitors performance against strategy; • considers the group’s risks and opportunities and the extent of the risks and opportunities that the group is willing to take in pursuit of its strategic objectives.
Principle 5 The governing body should ensure that reports issued by the organisation enable stakeholders to make informed assessments of the organisation’s performance, its short, medium and long-term prospects	The board and each of its sub-committees approves in advance a programme for the year ahead. All reports required to be distributed to shareholders are included in the programme. Ad hoc announcements released on the JSE’s SENS system are, if required, reviewed by the board. Executive management strives to release information to stakeholders in a simple, clear and transparent manner to ensure that information is easily understood and engages with stakeholders on any queries raised. The board and the audit and risk committee collectively reviews the integrated annual report in order to ensure that it addresses material matters to its stakeholders in the short, medium and long term and ensures that all reports are issued in compliance with the relevant codes and legal requirements. The board annually signs off on a JSE compliance certificate verifying that to the best of its knowledge, the company has complied with all the Listings Requirements of the JSE.
Principle 6 The governing body should serve as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance in the organisation	Refer to principle 1 above. The board is responsible for corporate governance. Various policies and procedures have been implemented to support good governance in the group.

Principle 7 The governing body should comprise the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively	The board exercised its prerogative to appoint John Copelyn as the chairman of the board. As a compensating control, a lead independent director was appointed. The lead independent director is Mohamed Haroun Ahmed who serves on all of the committees of the board, and is therefore well placed to influence the governance of the company and meet his obligations. By separating and clearly defining the roles and responsibilities of the chairperson and the chief executive officer, as set out in the board charter and the group's levels of authority, it ensures a balance of power and authority and precludes any one director from exercising unfettered powers of decision making. The board comprises a majority of independent non-executive directors with varied skills and experience. The board comprises 67% black members. Although Tsogo Sun Hotels has adopted a board diversification policy, which includes gender, age, ethnicity and cultural diversity, no voluntary targets have been set. Board diversity is assessed and monitored annually. The board considers diversity a core measurement in the appointment of new members. Tsogo Sun Hotels considers the independence of directors holistically, and on a substance-over-form basis, in line with the practices of King IV and based on the indicators set out in the Companies Act and the JSE Listings Requirements. The composition of the board, independence, experience, race and gender can be found in the 2021 integrated annual report. Summarised curricula vitae can be found on the company's website on http://www.tsogosun.com
Principle 8 The governing body should ensure that its arrangements for delegation within its own structures promote independent judgment, and assist with balance of power and the effective discharge of its duties	See principle 7 above. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tsogo Sun Hotels' Memorandum of Incorporation delegates shareholders' authority to the board, with the exception of a few selected matters, for consideration by shareholders. • The board has delegated certain matters to its committees as set out in their respective terms of reference. • Executive management operate within defined levels of authority that is reviewed by the board annually.
Principle 9 The governing body should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair and individual members, support continued improvement in its performance and effectiveness	Refer to principle 7 and 8 above.

Principle 10 The governing body should ensure that the appointment of, and the delegation to, management contributes to the role clarity and the effective exercise of authority and responsibilities	The appointed chief executive officer is Mr MN von Aulock. He is responsible for executing strategy and the daily running of the business. The annual performance of executive management is measured by pre-approved financial and personal key performance objectives. These measurements clearly define expectations and assists with role clarity.
Principle 11 The governing body should govern risk in a way that supports the organisation in setting and achieving its strategic objectives	Refer to principle 4 above. The board has adopted an enterprise-wide approach to risk management. The process of identifying and managing risks has been delegated to the audit and risk committee. The audit and risk committee determines the group’s risk appetite and tolerance levels. It recognises the material issues that could impact on achieving the group’s strategic outcomes and manages those risks in accordance with the group’s risk management plan. Opportunities are also recognised and acted upon, if appropriate. The systems of internal control are designed to manage rather than eliminate risk, and provide reasonable but not absolute assurance as to the integrity and reliability of the financial statements, the compliance with statutory laws and regulations, and to safeguard and maintain accountability of the group’s assets. The board and executive management acknowledge that an integrated approach to the total process of assurance improves the assurance coverage and quality in addition to being more cost-effective. The audit and risk committee has monitored compliance with the group’s risk management policy and confirmed that Tsogo Sun Hotels has complied with the policy in all material aspects.
Principle 12 The governing body should govern technology and information in a way that supports the organisation setting and achieving its strategic objectives	The audit and risk committee oversees the governance of information technology (‘IT’). The IT strategy, governance processes and all decision making form part of a coordinated and integrated process across relevant business functions. All strategies and decisions are developed in a collaborative manner with the business and are based on the demands of the industry that the company operates in. Please refer to pages 53, 54 and 56 of the 2021 integrated annual report for detailed information on Tsogo Sun Hotels’ information technology.
Principle 13 The governing body should govern compliance with applicable laws and adopted, non-binding rules, codes and standards in a way that supports the organisation being ethical and a good corporate citizen	The board is responsible for and strives to comply with all applicable laws and regulations to the best of its ability. Compliance is an ethical imperative and is monitored by the audit and risk committee and, in applicable instances, by the social and ethics committee and reported to the board. A legal universe compliance framework is in place. New legislation impacting on the group is discussed at board meetings. The board is assisted in this regard by the Company Secretary. Directors have unlimited access to the services of Southern Sun Secretarial Services Proprietary Limited and external legal advisers.
